Vinyl has good looks without a big price tag.

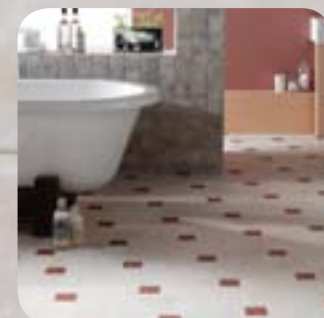

Vinyl is durable & cost effective

Vinyl stands the test of time, maintaining its good looks under heavy foot traffic. It's moisture and stain resistant, so spills just wipe away and when compared with alternative materials, vinyl is cost effective to install and economical to maintain over the life of the floor.

Vinyl is also warm

While often simulating the look of other hard surfaces, vinyl finishes are in fact warmer than ceramic tiles.

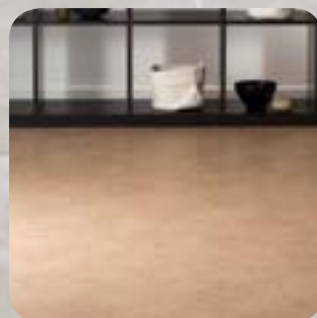

Vinyl absorbs noise

Its soft cushion properties reduce noise and provides extra comfort underfoot.

Vinyl is easy to clean

Vinyl flooring is very low maintenance and with no need for varnishing, sealing or waxing it requires very little effort to keep clean.

To reinforce our passion in vinyl flooring, we have an extensive range designed to cater for those looking for the most contemporary designs and style right through to those in search of something more traditional.

Vinyl flooring explained

Vinyl can be purchased in sheets, planks or tiles, depending on the type of flooring you want. As a general rule, vinyl that has been designed to replicate a timber look will come in planks. The rest of the styles are produced in sheets, planks or tiles and will vary according to different suppliers.

Vinyl flooring care & maintenance

While vinyl is generally easier to maintain than other flooring surfaces, we do recommend that you sweep it as often as possible and then give your floor a good mop.

Another good idea is to always rinse your mop or applicator with warm water, which will ensure you have a streak free finish.
